Meager Reports Reveal Bombing of City By Jap Planes

(By Associated Press)
SHANGHAI, Dec. 7. — Advance columns of Japanese troops assailed Nanking's historic walls tonight.

Japanese officers who announced the attack said a unit of the invaders was attempting to climb the city's massive battlements with scaling ladders—a maneuver handed down through the middle ages. Gates of the apparently doomed city were closed. Chinese had started a final stand which seemed destined to fail.

Japs Report Progress
Japanese asserted that their main forces had not yet reached the city but added that they were "progressing satisfactorily and according to schedule."

The spokesmen did not say how soon he expected the fall of the one-time fount of nationalistic China.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, China's leader, had left Nanking, Chinese advisers disclosed. He and Madame Chiang, head of China's air force, were said to have departed by airplane for Nanchang, capital of the interior province of Kiangsi. The government evacuated two weeks ago.

Meager foreign dispatches trickling through from Nanking confirmed Japanese reports that Nippon's warplanes had pounded the city with bombs. These advisers, however, did not mention the extent of casualties or damage.

Japanese had asserted that 90 planes raided the city in the most intensive bombardment of the war thus far.

Aimed at Military Objectives

The raids apparently were aimed at military objectives in the city's environs. Japanese claimed their air force had struck at towns and cities of the lower Yangtze valley as far as Nanking, deep in Anhwei province, destroying airfields, aircraft, and military equipment.

The Chinese boom at Kiangyin, blocking Japanese warships from an attack on Nanking, remained intact. Japanese previously had reported its destruction.

Japan's grip on Nanking tightened early today. Then the Japanese reported they had blocked all exits from Nanking on the south end by a spearhead unit thrust toward the Yangtze river which curves around the city's western and northern fringes.

Mt. Union Students
At Borgwardt Trial

LISBON, Dec. 7.—Five members of the psychology class at Mt. Union college were interested spectators at the Borgwardt murder trial Monday.

The young men, attending by special permission of the college authorities, took many notes during the court session. During a recess they talked with the defendant in the sheriff's court house office.

$60,000 Mail Theft a Mystery

A post office inspector is shown checking registered mail from one of five sacks recovered from the river in the latest New York City mail robbery mystery. Seven sacks, containing mail valued at $60,000, vanished from a locked truck en route from the General Postoffice to Hoboken, N. J. It is thought that robbers had taken the mail from the truck as it halted for one of four traffic lights. Authorities are without a clue. The theft was revealed when a fisherman hooked one of the sacks.

Mrs. Mary Cartwright of Delaware county, lecturer, and William L. Mahan of Defiance county, former Defiance county school superintendent, will be speakers at the Salem Farmers Institute Jan. 19 and 20 in the Memorial building.

Mrs. Cartwright, mother of several missionary workers, is the wife of a minister. Her lecture topics include religion, education, health and community service. A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university, Mrs. Cartwright has been a lecturer since 1915, since which time she has spoken at 2,000 farm institutes in Ohio's 88 counties. She was formerly associated with the state health department in Columbus. Mahan, who operates a poultry and truck farm in Defiance county, has been engaged in educational activities for 18 years. A graduate of Ohio Northern university and the University of Wisconsin, he was a teacher in rural schools for a number of years, eventually becoming superintendent.

HIT 'EM AGAIN

It's no secret the south opposes federal control of wages and hours because it wants to preserve labor cost differences which give it a slight advantage in national markets. To this argument the new deal replies, "There can be no place for that sort of chiseling."
The south's opposition to the anti-lynching bill is based on its own peculiar race problem in sections where Negroes outnumber whites. Southerners insist they must be free to handle this problem in their own way. The new deal replies, "There's no excuse for this attitude."
The south's interest in agricultural control is due to its dependence on export trade in cotton—a dependence which its spokesmen charge the national government has ignored in its trade policies. Southerners think they have a right to every cent they can wring from the government. Yet, a Wisconsin Progressive the other day succeeded in withholding federal support for southern dairy farmers because they were competing with the dairy industry in his own state.
There are other grievances which might be added to the list, but it's already long enough to indicate broadly why here and there in the south an old doctrine is being mentioned again—that the north is another country and that if the north is going to control Washington the south had better secede.

HEAR YE!

The big thing about writing, if you have anything to say, is to get attention. Otherwise, it's like shouting into a featherbed. Nothing comes of it.
Hartley W. Barclay, editor of Mill and Factory, wanted "The True Story of Weirton," an article he wrote for the October issue of the magazine, to be read. He had something to say.
This is the introduction: "For the best show of the year—go to Weirton. What comedy! What tragedy! What a colossal burlesque staged with taxpayers' money! What a curse to democracy! What a lot of expensive Wagner act nonsense!"
Mr. Barclay followed through. He had something to say, though not many persons knew about it. But—Garet Garrett now has covered the same ground in The Saturday Evening Post, possibly because Mr. Barclay showed the way.
The national labor relations board has subpoenaed Mr. Barclay for his records, he says he won't hand them over and the stage has been set for a test of the board's power.
So instead of shouting into a featherbed, Mr. Barclay now is yelling into a public address system that WEIRTON SHOWS THE PREJUDICED LABOR BOARD AND ITS OPERATIVES AT THEIR WORST.

THE AGES OF MAN

Great Britain's young minister of war, Leslie Hore-Belisha, has made headlines with a housecleaning of His Majesty's military directorate, replacing old men with young ones. Among other things, this is supposed to prove that the British are willing to give youth a chance to take more of a hand in momentous matters, just as the dictators have done.
With an apology for what will sound like a skeptical attitude on this demonstration of the youth movement's power in Britain, it's possibly worth remembering that Mr. Hore-Belisha's young men are long will be older men and, as they will think, wiser men. Whereupon, their jobs will be eyed by younger men who will say that the oldsters are senile dodos who have lost track of things and should give way to resilient youth again, without delay.
How far this speedy turnover should be allowed to go is problematic. It is a fact, though, that in every country on earth the wisest, most capable men (in their own opinion) are college freshmen.
John Bull would settle for half what he owes this country. Poor old Sam! He used to be considered a shrewd Yankee boss trader, but he hasn't done much toward sustaining his reputation since he grew soft and yielding.—Jack Warwick in Toledo Blade.

Gas masks are said to be unexpectedly popular with small school children in Europe. The youngsters have discovered a safe method for making faces at the teacher.—Worcester Gazette.

THE STARS SAY

For Wednesday, December 8
A day of doubtful, if not precarious, conditions is the augury based on lunar and mutual aspects of ruling planets. While employment is under fair promise, yet there are certain signs of disruptive matters, suddenly precipitated, which would prove disastrous if managed with rashness, haste and lack of careful consideration.
Those whose birthday it is are confronted by a year in which the propitious outcome of unsettled events depends on cautious, diplomatic and sagacious grasp of devastating situations. Reckless, hasty, impetuous and quarrelsome behavior would prove decidedly hazardous.
A child born on this day may have diversified talents, being original and practical, but it may be too energetic, impulsive and aggressive. It should succeed in constructive work.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—There was great headwagging as to what would happen to the town's most fashionable restaurant, The Colony, when Ernest Cerutti passed away at sea on his annual visit to Italy a year ago. Ernest, with his partner Gene, now in command, piloted the place to its deserved fame.
They were considered masters in team work. A "united we stand, divided we fall" combination. But Gene has carried on alone successfully. The Colony is the only dining place to inspire free write-ups in Town and Country, The New Yorker and Fortune. Its clientele is top notch.
The place is without pomp, inside and out. The entrance a few steps off Madison in the 60's is up a short, narrow flight of steps. The bar and reception room are postage stamp size. No flunkies in livery. Just Bill, the wash room boy, who knows society better than the Social Register.
The dining room itself is small but clean and comfortable. Crowds do not flock to the Colony. The prices are high and food is the thing. Undesirables somehow never go back. There is no music, and by 10 o'clock waiters begin stacking chairs on the tables.

Frazier Hunt is still another writer to drift from world capitals to the isolation of a ranch in Alberta. For years the Alexis, Ill., born scribbler has been making his base in such cosmopolitan centers as London, New York and Shanghai. His acres adjoin the Canadian place owned by the Duke of Windsor. Along with his literary output, Hunt is making a success of cattle raising and comes to New York only to talk things over with editors.

Chop chop: For the first time I came upon an intoxicated Chinese yesterday. Beautifully bottled, he was weaving across 54th street with a handful of ivory hewn back scratchers which he was trying to sell after bowing and delivering his sing-song talk.

Down in the bar at Whyte's venerable restaurant on Fulton street is a painting of Herald Square, done in 1900. It was also on view at the Buffalo fair when President McKinley was shot. Jim Corbett's saloon is shown in the foreground and there is a conspicuous sign—"manicure, pedicure, coiffure"—hands, feet and head. Even 37 years ago the beauticians were in evidence.

Like Job, the thing which they greatly fear seems to come upon the radio announcers. Namely, strange throat troubles which deprive them of voice. There's scarcely a week one is not stricken with laryngitis and there is that affliction called "gimples" which often comes, lightning-like, to render a victim hoarse just before broadcasting. In the pockets of such experts as Clem McCarthy, Graham McNamee, Sam Taub and other gatling-gun-gabbers will always be found palliatives. Rudy Vallee and Floyd Gibbons use a pellet that costs several dollars for a small packet.

The zipper vogue, along with the economics of the world, has played hob with the calling of lady's maid. The tedious problem of dealing with hooks and eyes and buttons is now accomplished with a quick swish of the wrist. Even the elaborate evening gowns that required so much maid service are now zippered. An expert lady's maid was one of the most highly specialized callings, usually held by trained French or German girls. Many of them got as high as $125 a month and their keep. Today the Job Wanted columns are filled with their pleas for work.

In the days when the theatre was theatre, the lady's maid to a great star lived in the grand manner. She was the buffer between star and public. Tips were hefty. Also, the maid traveled from city to city, often in private coach, and resided in the royal suites of magnificent hotels. Lily Langtry's maid, Gwennie, became almost as famous as her mistress. She was Titian haired, of the voluptuous Lillian Russell type, and was followed across the country by two of New York's reigning beaux of that era. I recall leaning against a post across from The Casino so long to watch her leave the stage exit one evening that a cop nudged me to move on. That was the time I told him, walking away fast, that I was a free born American citizen and had my rights, so I had.

NOSEBLEED
"EPISTAXIS" sounds like the name of some horrible disease. In reality, it means nothing more than nosebleed. This common complaint is the cause of personal embarrassment and often of fear.
Some persons are much more likely to have it than others. There are many causes for nosebleed. Usually it results from a definite nasal disturbance. If the attacks are frequent, in order to stop them it is necessary to determine the exact cause.
Nasal Polyps are a common cause. In children, nosebleed is usually due to thickening and congestion of the lining of the nose, or it may result from a tiny ulcer, a tear or infection of the delicate membrane within the nose. Bleeding following a blow or fall on the nose is self-explanatory.
Bear in mind that nosebleed is sometimes a symptom in certain constitutional disorders and other serious ailments. Occasionally it may come on spontaneously, without any apparent cause. Frequent nosebleeds, especially in adults, should not be neglected. Nature's warnings must never be overlooked.
Perhaps Fortunate
Persons who suffer from high blood pressure or hardening of the arteries frequently have nosebleeds. Perhaps this is fortunate, like the blowing off of steam through a safety valve; the loss of blood prevents the rupture of a blood vessel elsewhere in the body. It may remove the pressure upon some blood vessel in the brain and prevent a stroke.
As a rule, nosebleed can easily be controlled. The first essential is to remain cool and collected. Bear in mind that excitement is stimulating to the heart and promotes more bleeding.
Insert a wad of cotton in the nostril and allow it to remain for at least an hour until a firm clot has formed. The application of cold water or ice to the nose and face often stops the bleeding. If the blood continues to drip into the throat despite the cotton plug, remove the packing and insert a fresh one.
If the bleeding persists in spite of all of these measures, it is best to send for a doctor. In fact, if the bleeding is profuse and a great deal of blood escapes, it is best to call a physician at once.

Sets New Deep Diving Record

All previous records for depth diving were shattered when Max E. Nohl, 27, left, descended to a depth of 420 feet in Lake Michigan near Milwaukee. His record attempt, made with the aid of Ivo Vestrom, right, his assistant, was to determine the effectiveness of a new type diving suit which he now plans to use in recovering gold and jewels from the Lusitania, sunk in 312 feet of water off the Irish coast. Nohl's suit differs from others in that it has a tank on the back which feeds a mixture of oxygen and helium into the suit, making the diver independent of the usual "life line" to the surface.

WASHINGTONVILLE
WPA Hours Reduced
Wages Are Boosted

The Fortnightly club members were entertained on Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Fred Girard. Other guests were Mrs. C. A. Weikart and Mrs. Jean Wilson. Cards were enjoyed, with honors won by Mrs. L. J. Davis and Mrs. C. H. Weikart. The hostess served lunch. In two weeks the club will be entertained at a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Mark Klingensmith.
Thirty-six members answered the roll call at the regular meeting of the Valley Temple No. 406, Fythian Sisters on Tuesday evening.
During the business session the following were nominated for officers for the coming year:
Past Chief, Clara Campbell; most excellent chief, Mildred Davis; excellent senior, Wilma Smith; excellent junior, Iris DeJame; manager, Elita Grim; mistress of records and correspondence, Helen Santula; mistress of finance, Esther Stouffer.
Protector, Ethel Jackson; guards, Elva Culler, Catherine Cutchell and Emma Wisler; pianist, Marie Falcon and Rebekah Weikart; installing officer, Helen Smith; trustee, Flora Taylor; press correspondent, Wilma Smith. A social hour was enjoyed and lunch was served.
About 25 members of the Pythian Sisters attended the district convention held at Salem on Thursday. Mrs. Ray Davis was a delegate from the local Temple. The initiatory work for six candidates was exemplified by the degree staff from the Washingtonville Temple. The convention next year will be held at Struthers.
LISBON, Dec. 7.—A change in pay schedule for WPA workers in Columbiana county was announced today by authorities here.
The change, effective Dec. 1, provides a six-cent increase in the hourly rate for unskilled workers but reduces their working hours from 120 to 105 a month. The monthly pay at the same figure.
In the past unskilled workers have been paid at the rate of 4 cents for a 120-hour month. The new schedule calls for 50-20-10 an hour and a 105-hour month. Skilled workers and those employed in a supervisory capacity are not affected by the change.
The new rate applies on pay starting on or after Dec. 10. Workers whose pays start prior to that date will be paid at the old rate until the start of their new period.
H. A. Moore, East Liverpool, assumed his duties as WPA certifying agent for the county this morning. Mr. Moore was appointed to the post Nov. 26 by Fred Roosevelt, district director, to expedite WPA assignments here. His office is located on the third floor of the court house.

Children's Colds

Relieve Their Misery
This Proved Way
WHEN your child comes down with a cold, you can't afford to take needless risks. Use the treatment that has been doubly proved for you—Vicks VapoRub.
It has been proved by everyday use in more homes than any other medicine of its kind—further proved by the largest clinical tests ever made on colds. (Full details in every VapoRub package.) Only Vicks give you proof like this.
Vicks VapoRub is direct external treatment. There's no dosing—no risk of spoiling appetite, or disturbing a delicate digestion. VapoRub can be used freely, as often as needed, even on the youngest child.
You simply massage VapoRub on throat, chest, and back (as illustrated). Then—to make its long-continued double action last even longer—spread a thick layer on the chest and cover with a warm cloth.
No Long Waiting for Relief to begin...
Almost before you finish rubbing, the youngster begins to feel warm and comfortable as VapoRub goes to work directly through the skin like a poultice. At the same time its medicated vapors, released by the warmth of the body, are carried direct to the irritated air-passages with every breath.
This double action loosens phlegm—relieves irritation and coughing—helps break up local congestion. And long after the little one relaxes into restful sleep, VapoRub keeps on working—hour after hour. Often by morning the worst of the cold is over.

"Beauty's A Charm" by HARRIET HINSDALE

CHAPTER XXI

The picture was completed but it would be weeks yet before the finished product was previewed and released. Three months had passed since the signing of Lucy Lee's contract and already rumors were circulating via the grapevine route that Supreme Pictures were not going to take up their option on her services at the expiration of six months.

The gossip rolled the gratifying morsel under their avid tongues. Hadn't they predicted that Lucy Lee Carter, like most beauty-prize winners, would never make the grade?

"My dear, she must be pretty—although that's a matter of taste, and personally I don't care for those dreamy brunettes—but the girl simply hasn't got anything else! She certainly can't act. And as for personality... it takes more than big brown eyes and wavy hair to make the fans sit up and take notice these days. Why, do you know, I heard they were cutting out most of her stuff in Neville Preston's picture. They say she's lousy!"

"The face on the cutting room floor, eh?"

"Yeah, I heard from a boy friend of mine who's a cutter over on the Supreme lot that Carter was about washed up. They may give her a chance in Preston's next picture, but they may not. Depends on how they think he is still that way about the wench?"

"After three months? Don't make me laugh! But did you hear about Adrienne Page?"

"You mean that blonde—a kind of a cousin or stepister or something to the Carter gal?"

"Yeah. Looks as if Supreme was gonna sign her up to a contract on the strength of a bit she played in the Preston opera. They say she's holding out for more money. Some bird named Ames is handling her and he claims he will boost her salary to four hundred as a start. Not bad, after making only one picture, if they can outsmart Supreme."

After the completion of the picture, Neville Preston went on a flying trip to New York to see a play which had recently opened and was the biggest hit of the season. The studio had bought the play and there was a possibility that Preston would be given the direction. It all depended on how his first picture shaped up. Whether or not it was "box-office."

Now that the picture was finished, Lucy Lee was restless and nervous, missing the constant strain and excitement to which she had grown accustomed during those weeks when the production was progressing.

Although no one had told her so, she suspected that the results of her first screen appearance were not entirely pleasing to the studio officials. She found the entire atmosphere on the Supreme lot had changed as far as she was concerned. There was less cordiality even in the greeting of the man at the information desk and people did not hail her in so friendly a fashion as they used to do.

Even Don Ames appeared less interested in her career than before. Most of his efforts were devoted to Pearl's publicity and each time a story or mention of "Adrienne Page" appeared in print, Pearl's undisguised exultation caused Lucy to feel for the first time in her life that most devastating of emotions—jealousy. When she heard them talking about the fat contract they meant to wangle out of Supreme Pictures, she wanted to scream. Nobody was worrying about her contract or what happened to her at the end of six months!

Sometimes she wondered fleetingly about Clyde. He was no doubt back in Carterton by now, satisfied to live in that sleepy village for the rest of his life. Perhaps she might have been homesick for Clyde and Rosemead, but there was always the thought of Neville Preston to crowd the past out of her mind.

Neville, at least, had not changed. Thoughtful and charming as ever.

Beauty Ship? No!

Mrs. Myrtle Deam

Charging that Dr. Jean Paul Fernel, Chicago plastic surgeon, disfigured her face by a "beauty" operation, Mrs. Myrtle Deam, 47, has filed a $60,500 suit in Los Angeles court against him. Mrs. Deam alleges that Dr. Fernel told her of a plan to operate a luxury liner on which aging women would be restored to beauty. She stated Dr. Fernel offered her a job as hostess on the ship if she submitted to a facial operation so that she could tell other patients of his work.

he always made her feel as though she were an important and interesting person. Since his rescue of her, with the subsequent publicity and the hints of romance between them, he had begun to stir her imagination as no one else had ever done. She thought of him more often and in a different way. Now that he was out of town she missed him terribly, dreamed of his return.

"What's the matter with you, Lucy Lee?" Pearl demanded one day as they were driving down the Boulevard enroute to join Don Ames at the Brown Derby for lunch. "You've been sitting there with that far-away look for blocks and this is the third time I have spoken to you without getting an answer. Snap out of it."

Each day Pearl insisted upon lunching or having dinner in some place frequented by the great and the near great of pictures.

Today she was by way of being the Derby's main attraction, for the morning newspapers and the daily trade journals had carried the announcement of her new contract with Supreme Pictures. They were met at the door by Ames, the usual broad grin upon his face and the inevitable sheaf of papers under his arm. The manager, bowing low and greeting them by name, led them to a table near the center of the room.

No sooner were they seated than Ames spread the newspapers out and began reading from them in a tone loud enough to be heard by a radius of fifteen feet.

Suddenly Lucy Lee cried out: "Why, my goodness gracious! There comes Clyde..." she was staring in amazement toward two men who had just stepped into the restaurant. "At least I think it is. Only he looks so different. Yes... It is Clyde!"

"You mean that tall lad with Bruce Loring?" asked Ames. "Who is he? The man, woman or child who lurches with Bruce can swing on my gate any old time." The men were coming nearer now and Ames gasped in surprise as he recognized Clyde.

"Why, if it isn't the service-station chappie from the old home town... anking into the Brown Derby with no other than the great and only Bruce Loring! Well, they say anything can happen in Hollywood—and now I believe it!"

Pearl, leaning forward, intercepted the newcomers as they were about to pass the table going toward one of the secluded booths ranged along the sides of the room. Her voice was sweet as honey and her face glowed with heartfelt welcome.

"Why Clyde, my dear boy, what a delightful surprise this is! We thought you had gone back to Carterton. Here's Lucy Lee... and we're both so happy to see you. Aren't we, dear?"

"Why, yes... of course," Lucy Lee stammered.

So adroit was Pearl's handling of the unexpected situation that in a moment there had been general introductions and vague explanations, and the two men were seated at the table instead of in a booth. Inside of an hour all Hollywood would know that Adrienne Page and Lucy Lee Carter had lunched with Bruce Loring, the most sought-after man of the moment in all filmdom.

The astonishing rise of Bruce Loring to stardom and a popularity among the fans comparable only to that of the lamented Randolph Valentino and Wallace Reid had been an outstanding event in Hollywood annals. It was one of those miracles which occur just often enough to keep the belief in fairy tales alive.

After the various futile attempts to crash the pictures Loring had been ready to call quits and return to New York. He was an actor who had played with some degree of success on the stage and his complete failure to obtain even a hearing in the studios had brought him to the point of utter disgust.

He had actually bought his ticket for New York when he got a call from one of the major studios. The part was for a gangster role and it made screen history!

A popular star demanded him as leading man in her next picture. People began to talk of Bruce Loring. Fan mail started to pour in to the studio. Magazine writers and motion picture critics became almost hysterical as they joyfully heralded the new find. Officials of the studio where he was working screamed in their restless sleep as they dreamed of losing him—but wakened reassured by the thought of the contract which held him securely bound.

Executives of other studios, who might have signed him had only the kind fates given them foresight as keen as their hindsight, cursed ably and vainly tried to find another "Bruce Loring type" to exploit, as is the quaint old studio custom.

Loring himself, big and he-manish and ruggedly handsome, refused to take his sudden success as anything but a grand joke. The flashing upward sweep from obscurity to dazzling renown, had not developed in him that overweening ego which usually accompanies such a rise.

Now in the Brown Derby he ordered plebeian ham hocks and sauerkraut for his lunch and listened in silence to Pearl's engaging account of the friendship she felt for Clyde, one of the finest boys she had ever known.

"I've always said there weren't many boys like Clyde in the world. Mr. Loring," she smiled, leaning toward them.

Theater Attractions

Ann Sothern and Burgess Meredith in a scene from "There Goes the Groom", at the State Wednesday and Thursday

Two new comedies show on a double bill at the State Wednesday and Thursday. The first feature gives leading roles to Herbert Marshall and Barbara Stanwyck in "Breakfast for Two," in a story which concerns a wealthy girl's efforts to make a man out of a charming idler.

Herbert Marshall is seen as the idler, Barbara Stanwyck as the wealthy Texas girl bent on reforming him. Glenda Farrell has the role of a gold-digging actress, Eric Blore has the part of Marshall's valet.

Meredith in Comedy Role

The second film is "There Goes the Groom," with Burgess Meredith, dramatic star of Winter, in a comedy role. Ann Sothern plays opposite Meredith. Mary Boland, Louis Henry, Ouslow Stevens, Roger Imhof and William Brisbane have supporting roles. Meredith as a penniless young man is jilted by Louise Henry. When he returns to her some years later a millionaire, she and her family are ready to accept him but the younger sister, Ann Sothern, who has been in love with him for years, marries him.

The Grand theater also shows a two-feature program Wednesday and Thursday: "Dangerously Yours" featuring Cesare Romero, Phyllis Brooks, Jane Darwell and Ann Dinehart, and "The Game That Kills," with Charles Quigley, Rita Hayworth and John Gallaudet.

Romero and Miss Brooks are seen in "Dangerously Yours" as two jewel thieves who outwit a gang of gem stealers to get possession of a rare stone and then have to battle it out between themselves.

Hockey Game Seen

Racketeering in ice hockey provides the theme for the exciting film, "The Games That Kill," second half of the bill. When one player is "accidentally" killed during a game, his brother, Quigley, believing the incident part of a planned war on the teams by gangsters, sets out to solve the situation.

"Home Pleasures" Discussed At Meeting Of Book Club

Delightful Christmas music was a highlight of the program on "Home Pleasures" presented at a meeting of the Book club in the library yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Loren Early, vocalist, sang two numbers, "Just a Bunch of Us" and "The Birth of the King". She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Anna Cook. Robert Thompson, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. H. J. Thompson, entertained with two baritone horn selections, "The Holy City" and "Christmas Festival".

A paper on "Leisure Home Hours" in which were discussed the many and varied interests pursued in leisure hours in the home, was given by Mrs. J. Elmer Johnson. "The Art of Living Together," given by Mrs. C. L. Hartsough, was a paper stressing the importance of home training in the ability of an individual to become a valued member of society.

Mrs. Winifred Baker interestingly reviewed the book, "The Country Kitchen," by Della P. Lutes. The authoress recalls in the book the kitchen of the late 70's when that part of the home was the center of all home activities. Customs and events no longer important to modern families were discussed.

Announcement was made concerning the next meeting of the club on Dec. 20 at the library when members will enjoy the annual Christmas party. A gift exchange and special program are planned. A tea will conclude the event.

Two new members were accepted by the club. They are Mrs. Carl Willman and Mrs. W. L. Hart. One name was presented for membership.

Miss Albright Bride Of Gus Schuster

A quiet wedding ceremony at 4 p. m. Saturday united in marriage Miss Katherine Albright and Gus Schuster, both of Salem. Rev. John Bauman officiated at the wedding at the Emmanuel Lutheran church.

Attendants were Miss Minnie Shunn and Martin Weber, Jr. Miss Albright wore a rust crepe frock with black accessories and corsage of roses. Miss Shunn was dressed in aqua crepe with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of roses.

A wedding dinner and reception in the evening were held at the home of Mr. Schuster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schuster, Wilson st.

The couple will make their home at 177 Wilson st. Mrs. Schuster is employed in the office of Dr. L. W. Atkinson. Mr. Schuster, graduate of Salem High school in 1927, is employed by the Mullins Manufacturing Corp.

Will Attend Colony Club Party

A Youngstown social event of interest here is the annual Colony club Christmas celebration at Youngstown, always attended by a number of Salem people. The holiday celebration will be held Monday night, Dec. 27, in the Hotel Ohio ballroom. Ruth Autenreith's orchestra will provide the music for the occasion.

On the committee with the president, Dr. Thomas W. Craver are Miss Mary Virginia Hannan, Robert D. Huxley, Fred B. King, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Straubel, James Walls, H. G. Coffey, Miss Jane Leedy, Mrs. Oscar Tolerton.

Sunday School Group At Calkins Home

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Calkins entertained members of the Baptist Sunday school cabinet at a meeting at their home, South Lincoln ave., last night. Plans were discussed for the Christmas "White Gift" service and the Christmas play on Sunday, Dec. 19, at the church. Activities for the year arranged.

Refreshments were enjoyed during a social hour.

Honor Newlyweds At Shower

A miscellaneous shower of gifts was presented Mr. and Mrs. Wade Schaefer, whose marriage was solemnized last Saturday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Starbuck, R. D. 4, last night. Mrs. Schaefer was formerly Miss Sara Starbuck.

Guests were Goshen grange members, relatives and other friends. About 60 were present, enjoying an informal social evening.

Concord Society Meets Thursday

Concord church Missionary society will meet at the home of the pastor, Rev. C. M. Rohrbach, in Ellsworth at 7:45 p. m. Thursday. The session will be in charge of Mrs. Chalmers Hamilton.

Mrs. George Fronius, who has been a patient at Salem Central Clinic for some time, returned yesterday to her home, 937 Liberty st.

Rotary Leader's Columbiana Visit Delayed by Snow

COLUMBIANA, Dec. 7.—District Governor O. D. Everhard, Barberston, scheduled to make his official visit to the Columbiana Rotary club Monday evening, was unable to appear owing to the exceedingly slippery condition of the roads. He will visit Columbiana at a later date.

C. F. Haumon, Canton, an advisor employe of Columbiana village, gave an interesting talk regarding the local water supply, which is now undergoing improvement by the construction of an iron removal. This is expected to be completed about February, but it will be several months before the water is entirely free from iron, due to corrosion in pipes, meters, etc.

Haumon described the process of removal and also told of experiences in drilling water wells in the local field and elsewhere. W. H. Matthews called the attention of Rotarians to the fact that the iron in this section of the state was the original cause of this being a territory devoted so largely to the steel industry, so that what may be a curse in one way may have been a blessing in others.

He stated that the varied industries of such towns as Columbiana and Salem may be the cause of the better type of citizenry as compared with larger steel centers. Next week's program will be in charge of D. H. Hepburn.

May Lose Job

DELAWARE, Dec. 7.—Loris Bennett, 36, faced possible removal of his commission as a deputy game protector today following his arrest and fining on a charge of trapping on a game refuge. Conservation Officer Guy Dennis recommended commission removal.

Four Generations of Royalty

Leetonia Couple To Hail 50th Wedding Anniversary

LEETONIA, Dec. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lodge, south of Leetonia, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday.

Harry Lodge and Retta J. Caldwell were married Dec. 8, 1887, at Signal by Rev. George L. Grate, pastor of Churchill Christian church. They have resided on a farm south of town during their married life with the exception of five years.

They are the parents of three children, including Mrs. B. F. Whitacre of Leetonia, and Arch, who resides south of town. One son, Frank, died in 1918. Chester Whitacre is their only grandson. Mr. Lodge, who is 73 years of age and Mrs. Lodge aged 70, are both in good health. Following a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitacre, open house will be held from two to four p. m. when friends and relatives may call to extend congratulations.

Missionary Meeting

The Young Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. C. Eldon Holt, Jr., Monday evening with Mrs. William Atkinson as associate hostess. Mrs. Olive Wolfgang was the leader and opened the discussion of the subject "The Road to Peace."

Officers elected for the coming year are: President, Mrs. Olive Wolfgang; vice president, Mrs. W. S. Mellinger; secretary, Mrs. Harry Ginter; statistical secretary, Mrs. Holt; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Barnes. Mrs. H. R. Mellinger, the retiring president, was presented a life membership. The hostesses served lunch.

Friends have been advised of the birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. W. Scott Nettrour, of Pittsburgh on Dec. 1. He has been named Walter Scott Nettrour III. Dr. Nettrour was a former Leetonia resident.

Move to Belthart Home
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoffman and family moved to the Michael Belthart home Saturday.

W. D. McKeefry has gone to Berkeley, Calif., where he will spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Felix Uis.

Walter Holloway has been re-enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Corps and is located at Patterson Field, Dayton.

Surprise Party

In observance of the 35th wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Calladine, Mrs. Royce Briggs, Mrs. Wilbur Stratton and Miss Ruth Calladine arranged a surprise party at their home, Saturday evening. Four tables of "500" were in play. Mrs. William Kyser, Mrs. Calladine, Luther Lipp and L. C. Schmidt were prize winners. The honor guests received beautiful remembrances.

The hostesses served lunch. Out of town guests were from Salem, Warren and Columbiana. Mr. and Mrs. Calladine were married Dec. 6, 1902 and are the parents of three daughters and one son, Wilbur. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Calladine were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin of Salem in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Calladine.

D. Wallace Rebekah lodge No. 279 will hold a card party in the I. O. O. F. hall this evening.

At the meeting of the highway grange No. 1483, Thursday evening, an open meeting will be held. Through the courtesy of Ross Tisher of East Liverpool, special music and a magician will present the program.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ponzell of Youngstown and Miss Martha Reed of East Liverpool were weekend guests of their sister, Mrs. Victor Heil and family.

Mrs. Anna Eans has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eans at Cleveland.

At League Meeting
Thomas Crothers, Frank Thorndale, Jack and Howard Beilhart, John Schaeffer, George Morris, Glenn Strouse, DeEria Smith, Lois Halversadt, June and Martha Lee Weikart, Donna Belle and Evelyn Weingart, Ruth Middleton and Miss Barbara Wiedmayer attended the Luther league Canton-Youngstown Federation quarterly meeting at Trinity Lutheran church, Canton, Sunday.

So Kindler Laughed

HUNTINGTON, Ind. — The bandit announced "this is a stick-up" and Albert Kindler, filling station attendant, laughed. The bandit insisted he meant business. Kindler laughed. The bandit brandished his gun. Kindler laughed. The bandit, disgusted, spun on his heel and walked away. Kindler laughed.

PARTY PLANNED AT COLUMBIANA

Daughters of King Will Hold Yule Fete At Lutheran Church

COLUMBIANA, Dec. 6.—The Daughters of the King will hold a Christmas party Tuesday evening in the social rooms of the Lutheran church, beginning with a covered dinner at 6:30 p. m. Husbands, brothers or friends are to be guests.

The program will include a reading by Olive Yarian; a solo by Miss LaRue Miller; selections by a quartet composed of Miss Florence Lipp, Mrs. Charles Esswein, Mrs. Ray Fisher and Miss Ethel Esterly; and Christmas carol singing under the leadership of Charles Esswein. The serving committee is composed of Mesdames C. O. Biddison, D. J. Miller, Charles Fisher, Ray Fisher and Misses Myrtle Koch, Rhoda Myers and Virginia Vollmogle.

The Missionary society of the Lutheran church will meet at 2 p. m. Wednesday when the annual election of officers will be held. The study topic will be "Two Pioneers of the Lutheran New Guinea Mission."

Salem Church Gives Program

At the Methodist church Sunday evening the program for the union service was given by the A. M. E. Zion church of Salem. The choir sang Negro spirituals and other choral selections and Rev. Ira Lavigne preached.

The Ladies Guild of the Methodist church will hold a Christmas party Thursday noon at the church, with members of the Ladies' Aid society as guests.

The Girls' Guild of Grace Reformed church will hold its Christmas party in connection with the regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the church.

Judge H. W. Hammond spoke on "The Opportunity of the Christian Layman" Sunday morning at the Christian church, where "Men's day" was being observed.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Chestnut. A ten cent gift exchange will be featured.

Christmas Fund checks totalling $13,800, were distributed Saturday by the two local banks. This amount was $2,800 in excess of a year ago.

The lawn space in front of the local municipal building has been improved by setting out a considerable amount of shrubbery.

Among the local hunters in Pennsylvania the past week were: Ellsworth Miller, Willis Miller, D. J. Miller, Dr. C. W. Dewalt, Ed. Herrman and Eugene Crowl, who formed one group near Driftwood. Kenneth Tyson, George Hoover, Homer Harold, James Barrow and Howard Maurer formed another group. A. B. Knopp, Harry Diller, sr. and son, Fred, and J. J. Quigley are others from this vicinity who are deer hunting.

Yule Decorations Go Up

The work of decorating Columbiana's business district for the holiday season is under way in charge of a committee representing the Chamber of Commerce, W. B. Miller, E. D. Roller, Mark Klingensmith and Dick Fitzpatrick. Sprays of pine branches lighted with colored bulbs are being placed near the tops of the white way lighting standards and will offer a pleasing variation from the decorations used in past years. Local stores report a larger volume of early Christmas buying than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Marks and family and Miss Mary Marks have moved from Union st. to the Stiver property, Leetonia, recently purchased by Mr. Marks. Warren Chain and family have moved from the McDonald property, Union st., to the Harrold house, Middle st.

Members of the Columbiana American Legion band, with their families will hold a banquet at 6:30 this evening in the American Legion hall in connection with their annual business meeting and election of officers. The dinner will be served by the Legion Ladies auxiliary.

George Childers, Youngstown has purchased the former O. B. Moore property, Pittsburgh st. and is now occupying the residence. Mr. Childers, employed by the Truscon Steel Co., expects to make improvements to the property next spring.

Miss Hum Convalescing
Miss Doris Hum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hum and a student at Heidelberg college, Tiffin, is convalescing from a recent appendicitis operation at the Salem City hospital.

At the recent meeting of the Columbiana Ministerial association, Rev. W. R. Gombert was elected president and Rev. J. C. Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

BANK MONEY ORDERS

Safe—Convenient—
COST LESS

NOTE THE RECEIPT

Bank Money Orders provide a new, easy way to pay bills and make remittances, safely, by mail. They are used in the same way as Postal or Express Money Orders, but are more conveniently obtained; issued for any amount and accepted everywhere, and their cost is very low. Another advantage is that you get a definite receipt—a complete record of the transaction and a positive proof of payment.

Cold in Pennsylvania, Too
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 7.—Temperatures fell to the lowest point of the season today as snowstorms swept western Pennsylvania from Lake Erie to the West Virginia border.

On the outskirts of Pittsburgh the mercury dropped to 14 degrees and in Bucktown, 70 miles southeast in the Allegheny mountains, it tumbled to zero.

The Pittsburgh Automobile club reported that all roads were open but warned motorists of ice that accumulated despite the work of highway crews in plowing away the snow and clearing curves.
The blanket of snow ranged from three inches to nearly a foot in the mountains near Kane—"ice box" of Pennsylvania—and in the hill counties of Somerset, Cambria, Westmoreland and Bedford.

Low Temperatures in Ohio COLUMBUS, Dec. 7.—Ice was blamed for sinking a Lake Erie tug and lowest temperatures in years were reported at Columbus and Cincinnati today as Ohio entered its second day in the grip of the most severe cold siege of the season.

Members of the crew of the tug "Herbert L." waded ashore through freezing water after an ice cake ripped a hole in the side of the boat near the Cedar Point jetty at Sandusky.

Cincinnati's temperature of 11.3 was the lowest recorded there since Feb. 20, 1936, when thermometers plummeted to zero. An official reading of 12.9 at Columbus was the coldest for Dec. 7 since 1885.

Highways throughout the state were open, with cinders on all curves and some straightaways of primary roads. Buses, street cars and railroads were reported operating on schedule.

The state highway patrol reported major snowfall only in the northeastern section of the state.
Additional snow flurries were forecast for Wednesday.

No hope for immediate relief was held out by the weather bureau. A slight moderation was forecast for tonight, with colder weather Wednesday and Wednesday night.

was held under $10,000 bond.

Pair Sentenced
CLEVELAND, Dec. 7.—Raymond Stern, 24, escaped inmate of the Mansfield reformatory, and Bruno Grinkiewicz, 19, today were under 15-year sentence to a federal penitentiary for the $14,000 robbery last July 23 of a Central National bank branch.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y.—The juvenile criminal is "possibly the greatest single crime problem in the United States today," Major W.
H. Drane Lester, P. B. L. inspector and administrative assistant to J.
Edgar Hoover, told the Eastern Zone convention of the New York State Teachers' Association.

GREENCASTLE, Ind.—Herr Heinz Probst, 22-year-old exchange student from Berlin attending De-Paul university, says the most startling thing about college life in this country is compulsory attendance at classes—something not startling but irksome to a majority of American students.

NLRB HEADS GET FREEDOM ISSUE

Lawyers In steel Company
Case Put Next Move
Up to Chiefs

(By Associated Press)
—STUEBENVILLE, Dec. 7.—Attorneys of the National Labor Board passed on to their chiefs in Washington today the next move in the "freedom of the press" controversy growing out of the Weirton steel company hearing.

They asked Chairman J. Warren Madden to decide what action should be taken against Hartley W.
Barclay, trade magazine editor, and two Pittsburgh advertising executives, who defied subpoenas of the board.

In New York, Barclay declared the subpoena infringing upon the freedom of the press.

Calls Inquiry Baroque
The attorneys demanded to know where Barclay had obtained material for an article in "Mill and Factory" in which he characterized the Weirton inquiry a "colossal burlesque," a "curse of democracy" and a "silly waste of money."

The issue developed during the 17-weeks-long hearing into charges of unfair labor practices against the subsidiary of National Steel.

Isadore Poller, board counsel, charged George and Carlton Ketchum, heads of an advertising firm retained by National Steel, with distributing reprints of Barclay's article.

In a nine-page formal motion stated that he wanted to question Barclay to determine whether the steel company:

1—Paid for the printing of Barclay's article;
2—Paid for reprints which Poller asserted were distributed to Weirton mill workers;

3—Dictated the tone and facts of the editorial.
Poller said he did not want to invade the freedom of the press, adding:

"But if this document . . .
would interfere with the rights of employees—then its calculated use by the Weirton Steel company may be shown by the testimony of whoever has knowledge thereof."

Fosters Disrespect, Barclay Says
While Poller asked the labor board officials to take action on Barclay's refusal to answer the subpoena, Barclay addressed the National Industrial Council in New York, saying labor troubles in many American factories and plants recently were part of "an organized campaign, protected by the government, which is educating workers in disrespect of the Constitution, the laws and the courts."

Expect Approval
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—War department officials said today they expected "most" of 15 Ohio river flood control projects would receive presidential approval "within two or three days." A $24,000-000 program was authorized at the last session of congress.

Finish Practice Field Wall
The retaining wall at the north end of Reilly school playground has been completed. Due to this improvement, a slight change in the position of the fence separating the playing field and the practice field was made.

More playground space, the superintendent said, is being arrange at McKinley school. Relocating of hedge and three small trees will provide play space on the south front for two groups of pupils. The change also makes a decided improvement in the appearance of the McKinley school property.

Salvage Steam Tug
SANDUSKY, Dec. 7.—Efforts were made today to salvage the 65-foot steam tug "Herbert L." whose captain, Aubrey Johnson of Cleveland, and crew of three men waded ashore through freezing water yesterday when the boat sank off the Cedar Point lighthouse.

Johnson said the tug, owned by the Waterways Construction Co. of Cleveland, sank in six feet of water after ice ripped a hole in its prow.

RELIEF PLANNED IN BOTH HOUSES

Two Sharply Divergent Bills Before Special Session

crans relief, tuberculosis hospitals and other non-emergency purposes.

Twelve Votes Required Favorable votes of 12 committees were required for recommending the bill. Representatives of the cities said the test vote indicated a poor prospect for passage as an emergency measure of the more important poor relief levy bill.

Among the measures introduced at the night session, one by Representative Frank J. Richter (D-Hamilton), also intended to aid relief financing during the remainder of this year, would authorize county budget commissions to distribute surplus classified property tax receipts any time during this year.

Richter also introduced bills to tighten administration of the sales tax, to exempt materials used in the production of crude oil and natural gas, or in floriculture, from the use tax, and to provide separate definite terms for all state supreme court judges.

Gov. Martin L. Davey had sent special messages authorizing consideration of these measures as well as one by Representative Frank Grubbs (D-Fayette), providing that the state treasurer be compensated for handling conservancy district funds. The compensation provision had been repealed inadvertently by the codified conservancy law passed last spring.

Representative W. H. Whethro (D-Lawrence) introduced a bill to insure $17,500,000 for payment of old age pensions next year and providing that if the receipts from liquor taxes and profits are insufficient to produce that sum, the balance should be taken from the general revenue fund. A similar bill previously failed to pass.

UNDERWOOD, Ont. — A white deer, never before heard of in this

Lloyd Pinkerton, on a farm near colored head and neck and a pure white body.

MELLON WINNER IN TAX APPEAL

United States Board of Appeals Overrules Major Portion of Government Claim

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 — The United States board of tax appeals overruled today a major portion of the government's $3,075,103 tax claim against the late Andrew W.
Mellon.

The decision said "petitioner (Mellon) did not file a false and fraudulent return with intention to evade taxes."

The board ruled for Mellon on six out of ten principal points, compromised a seventh point, and ruled for the government on the other three.

The decision, which discussed only the legal interpretation of a score of issues, gave no figures on what tax deficiency, if any, the estate of the former secretary of the treasury will have to pay.

Mellon's lawyers, however, won a deduction for the cost of five priceless paintings which Mellon gave to his charitable and educational trust and which have since been donated to the federal government.

The Mellon estate now is building a national museum of art in Washington to house more than fifty famous paintings the excavated officer gave to the government before his death last summer at the age of 82.

Most of the other issues in the dispute about Mellon's 1931 taxes dealt with securities transactions for which Mellon claimed exemptions.

SCOUTS REPORT AN ACTIVE YEAR

Growth and Increase In Scope Discussed At Annual Meeting

Giffin and Floyd McQuiken, assistants; 25 members.

Troop No. 5, Christian church, Alfred Paxson, scoutmaster; 23 members; increase, 10.

Troop No. 49, Winona, Lowell
Whinnery, scoutmaster; eight members.

Neighborhood patrol of A. M. E.
Zion church, Roy H. Clarke, scoutmaster; six members.

Troop No. 47, Homeworth, John Liber, scoutmaster; 16 members; membership increase, 4.

Troop No. 56, American Legion, Raymond Moff, scoutmaster; L. H.
Fresch, assistant; 35 members.

The outdoor program of the Scouts has grown steadily under Commissioner Howell's leadership.
It was disclosed, the McKinley reservation near Lisbon being used throughout the year by Salem Scouts.

As the result of courts of honor held during the past year 40 boys have become second class scouts, eight first class, two Star and one Eagle. A total of 46 merit badges were awarded.

Seven passed second class tests at the summer camp, one first class and five became Star Scouts while 38 merit badges were won.

Plan New Troops

Howell reported plans under way for the establishment of a troop at St. Paul's Catholic church.

Troop leadership in the Salem council is good and it is enthusiastic, the leaders participating in monthly round table discussions at the Scout reservation. Six leaders are taking a first course in Scout Leadership.

Boy Scouts during the past year did traffic duty at various times during civic events, aided J. M. Kelley in preparing the annual Easter egg hunt and held patrol contests at the High school building.

Six Salem Scouts attended the national jamboree in Washington, D. C., in the summer.

PLAYER TRADES AT BIG LEAGUE MEETING SLACK

Talk On Deader Ball Replaces Deals Among Major Clubs

By PAUL MICKELSON
CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Stymied at almost every bid on the dulllest player mart in memory of the oldest ivory hunters, big league club owners today haggled over an old, favorite subject—the baseball.

Over in the National league, everyone seemed agreed that a deader ball was necessary for the 1938 season than in the American, where long distance hitters grow like mushrooms and pop much louder, there was a big battle over the question of the Yankees, the lively ball game was fighting a hard fight and it looked as if it might win its point.

Thus, there was every indication that the two leagues would use different calibers of horse-hides next season... the Nationals a dead one and the Americans the same old lively sphere.

So intense was the baseball dispute in the American league meeting yesterday that the clinic lasted almost five hours—a record sitting. Nothing official was learned but by grapevine information came reports that the Yankees argued so long and fervently for the old ball that they won the majority over.

Meanwhile, the only news from the huddle of club owners and managers came in the way of front office business, which was:

The National league re-elected Ford Christopher Frick as president for a three-year term at a good boost in salary, now estimated to be $27,500 annually. It voted down the New York Yankee proposal to hike the player limit from 25 to 26 and awarded the 1938 All-Star game to Cincinnati.

In addition to their debate over the ball, the American league voted to open its 1938 season April 10 and to close Oct. 2—a day later on each end than in 1937—and voted down Sunday doubleheaders until the home team has played three Sabbath games. The Nationals also voted to continue the major-minor league agreement from Feb. 1, 1938 to Jan. 1, 1942 and re-elected Colonel Jacob Ruppert, of the Yankees, vice president. Named with the Colonel on the league board of directors were Lou Comiskey, Chicago; Alva Bradley, Cleveland; and Tom Yawkey, Boston.

Pensions also were voted to two retired A. L. umpires, Bill Dinnin and George Hildebrand. Dinnin retired yesterday; Hildebrand quit in 1934.

Closest approach to a major league swap fell through late last night as the Boston Red Sox walked out of a conference with Cleveland. The Red Sox offered Pitcher Lefty Grove and infielder Eric McNair to the Indians for Pitchers Mel Harder and Dennis Galehouse and infielder Roy Hughes but Cleveland insisted on infielder Pinky Higgins instead of Grove. That was the rub.

GARDEN TAKES WINTER SCENE

Man-Made Snow Falls On Arena For Annual Sport Show

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—At three o'clock this morning big Jim McNally waved a signal, there was a crunching roar as blocks of ice disappeared into the hopper, and it began to snow hard in Madison Square Garden.

By three this afternoon the place was due to be transformed into a thorough winter resort, the Giant ski-jump and the center of the arena mantled with white and the skating ponds glistening with ice so that the performers in the second annual North American Winter Sports show, opening tonight, could get in a little practice.

McNally, who has been taking the old and the new Gardens apart and putting them back together again for 40 years, didn't appear much impressed by the miracle. He's been performing it a long time, and he hasn't failed yet.

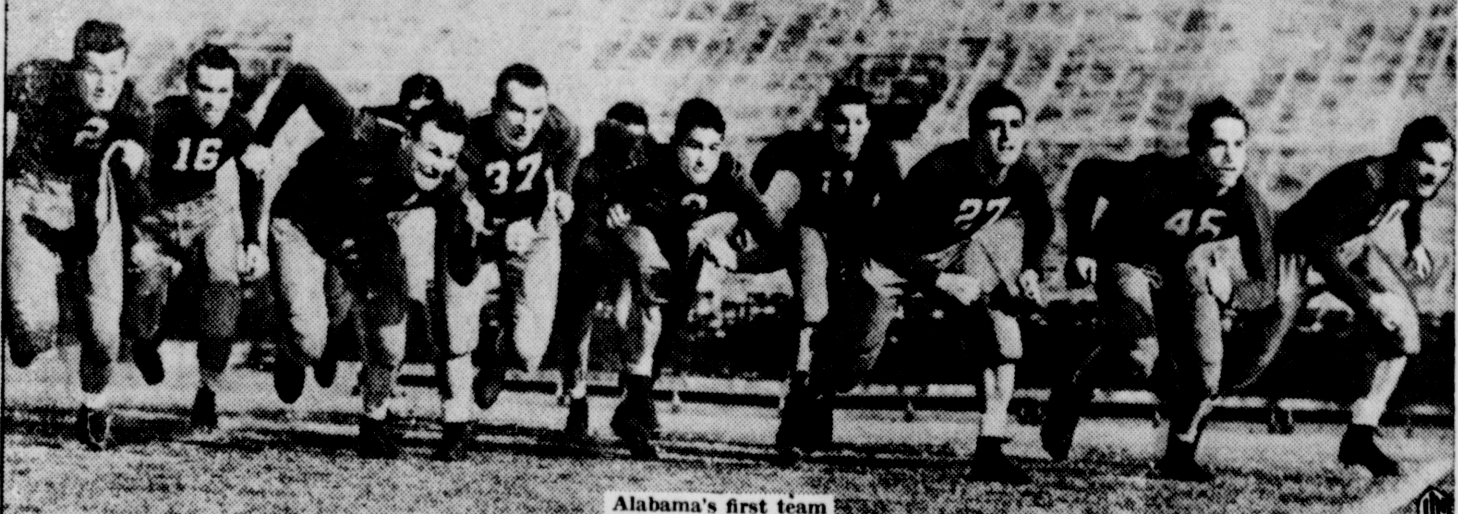

"All a man needs to learn is to go without sleep and not to ever want to go home," he said. "I got only two hours sleep last night and I probably won't get any tonight." This year the big "snow" machine will powder over 250 tons of ice each day and settle it over the break-neck slide and the arena. Each night after the show it will be thawed out completely.

Conservation Unit Marks Rabbits To Gain Information

COLUMBUS, Dec. 7.—"Earmarked" rabbits were used by the state conservation department this fall to gather information necessary for its game propagation and distribution program.

Before being released from state game reserves, thousands of bunnies were fitted with small metal tags, bearing serial numbers. As the rabbits were shot, hunters recorded the date and location of the kill and the division checked the serial number to determine the release date and the place. Records of the conservation department include the age, sex and weight of all tagged rabbits.

Alabama's Crimson Tide Rolls Toward Rose Bowl

Alabama's first team

Here is a new picture of the gridiron stalwarts at University of Alabama as they resumed practice in preparation for their clash with University of California in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena on New Year's Day. Untied and undefeated, the Crimson Tide has played in the west coast classic four times, winning three and tying one. Those shown above are, left to right, Perron Shoemaker, right end;

War Admiral Is Leading Threat In Santa Anita Handicap

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—If Charles S. Howard continues on his present tack, one might expect him to put in a bid for War Admiral and all other outstanding opponents of Seabiscuit in the latter's forthcoming $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap engagement.

However, it is far from likely that Howard will make a try at obtaining War Admiral for his colors. If he did, he would probably meet with the same kind of failure that greeted horsemen in Man O'War's day when Samuel D. Riddle declared that "money couldn't buy" his big red champion.

LISBON OPENS WITH POTTERS

Bike's Quint To Play E. Liverpool In First Game Friday

LISBON, Dec. 7.—Coach Phil Bickle's Lisbon High school cagers will open their 1937-38 season this week, meeting East Liverpool High's Potters at the River City Friday night.

Lisbon will play all of its games away from home this season because the new school gymnasium has not been completed.

Coach Bickle has a veteran squad available, including Donald Korn and B. Kelley, high scorers from last season's team. Other experienced cagers are Hollenman, Hollinger, Nace, J. Veropoli, Farmer and Rodu.

The season's schedule follows:
Dec. 10—East Liverpool.
Dec. 17—Salem.
Dec. 24—New Waterford.
Jan. 8—Fairfield.
Jan. 14—Boardman.
Jan. 21—Struthers.
Jan. 22—Columbiana.
Jan. 28—Carrollton.
Jan. 29—Chester, W. Va.
Feb. 5—Salineville.
Feb. 11—East Palestine.
Feb. 12—Minerva.
Feb. 18—Sebring.
Feb. 19—Newton Falls.

Player Loses Hand

SEMINOLE, Okla., Dec. 7.—Amputation of his left hand ended yesterday the baseball career of High "Red" Alexander, Cleveland Indian rookie center fielder. His hand was injured in a farm motor accident. He played with Springfield of the Mid-Atlantic league last year.

Baseball Magnates Talk Swaps

Charlie Grimm, John Seys, Red Corriden

Fuel for the "Hot Stove league" was piled up when baseball officials gathered at Milwaukee at the annual meeting of the minor leagues to reorganize their teams and make trades for the 1938 season. Among those present were, left to right, these three Chicago Cub officials, Charlie Grimm, manager; John Seys, club vice president, and Red Corriden, coach.

may, however, be useful as a pacesetter for a stablemate and that may be one of Howard's preconceived ideas.

Horsemen, however, are curious as to what prompted Howard to plunk down another high stack of "G-notes" for A. G. Vanderbilt's Chanceview, a gelding which won only one race, and that but recently, since Vanderbilt bought him as a Santa Anita prospect on the eve of this year's running of the lavish number. As a gelding, Chanceview is useless for breeding purposes, but is supposedly a superior mud runner. Perhaps it is Howard's notion to protect himself even in this respect—to have a mudlark in the race in the event of sloppy going since Seabiscuit does not fancy goo. But Vanderbilt, one of Howard's most recent acquisitions, Fair Knightess, for which a fancy sum reportedly has been paid, can turn on terrific speed during earlier portions of a contest, but has been known to burn herself out in the final stages. Of course, Howard may turn Fair Knightess loose in sprint events to his profit, but she hardly has the staying power for a race such as the Santa Anita Handicap. She bought Chanceview with the same idea in mind and the gelding failed to come through with a triumph until recently.

Anyway, taking a general view of the situation, it must be admitted Howard and his trainers know their stuff as attested by the phenomenal rise of Seabiscuit from mediocre rank to handicap champion since he fell into their hands. But they will still need War Admiral if they would have a solid grip on next year's Santa Anita Handicap and other important numbers.

RECORD ENTRY FOR HANDICAP

Santa Anita Race Lists 93 Nominations For March 5 Running

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 7.—The Los Angeles Turf club announced a record of 93 nominations today for the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap and proudly proclaimed the group the greatest array of horses ever assembled at one track.

Listed for the March 5 renewal of the nation's richest turf event are War Admiral, undefeated 3-year-old king; Seabiscuit, 1937's leading money winner; Rosemont, 1937 Santa Anita victor; Pompoon, Heely, Top Row, 1936 Santa Anita winner; White Cockade, Scene-shifter and other stars.

Whether War Admiral, Calumet Dick and White Cockade of the top flight nominees would compete in the Santa Anita meeting, opening Christmas day, is problematical. All other nominees already are at the track or enroute there.

Track officials still hope Samuel Riddle will ship War Admiral west. In Philadelphia last week Riddle said he still was undecided whether Man O'War's great son would race here or in Florida.

Recognize Player As Batting Champ

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Enos Slaughter formally became the American Association's 1937 batting champion today.

The title, conceded long ago, received the official stamp today with the release of official averages which gave the Columbus outfielder a season's mark of .382. A big gun in his team's drive to a pennant, Slaughter performed in 154 games and collected 245 hits in 642 appearances at bat, including 42 doubles and 26 homers.

BIG TEN CHAMP TAKES OPENER

Minnesota Cage Team Triumphs In First Start, 41-33

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—It was one up and one to go tonight for the Big Ten's basketball co-champions.

Minnesota scored an opening game victory over Grinnell 41 to 33 last night. Illinois, which shared the title with the Gophers will face its first foe of the season tonight in Carroll, for three consecutive years Wisconsin state college champion. The Illini make their debut with only Captain Louis Boudreau back from last year's regular five.

Northwestern and Ohio State also play tonight. The Wildcats invade Marquette, which thumped Wisconsin last week, while the Buckeyes oppose Marietta.

Last night Indiana and Wisconsin joined the Gophers in victory. The Hoosiers, in their first start, amassed 32 points in a last half surge to defeat De Pauw 45 to 25. Wisconsin rebounded from the Marquette setback to trounce North Dakota 41 to 22.

Weekly Fights On Alliance Program

ALLIANCE, Dec. 7.—Twenty-eight rounds of boxing are scheduled for the Sebring American Legion post's show at Memorial hall here Wednesday night.

Harry Weekly, prominent Alliance fighter, will meet Kid Carnahan of Detroit in the 10-round main go.

Sailor Lee of Sebring and Bernie Ambers of Akron tangle in the semi-final, while Al Stoffer of Salem and Kemper Jones of Akron square off in one of the two prelims. The other preliminary bout will send Bill Miller of Alliance against Joe Campo of Akron.

The first bout will start at 8:30.

Protest Win

KENTON, Dec. 7.—A Kenton High school basketball victory over Ada was forfeited today by H. R. Townsend, state high school athletic commissioner, on the grounds that Milroy Brown, a Kenton player, lived at nearby Alger and therefore was ineligible.

ALABAMA, PITT GOPHERS LEAD 5-YEAR STAND

Crimson Tide Has Best Record On Gridiron, Survey Shows

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Figured solely on the won and lost records, the nation's No. 1 college football team for the last five-year stretch is Alabama's Crimson Tide, prospective rival for California in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena on New Year's day.

An Associated Press survey of the records for the seasons of 1933-37 inclusive, today revealed Frank Thomas' Tuscaloosa Terrors at the head of the parade of more than 100 of the country's leading college outfits.

During that time, Alabama has piled up victories against only three defeats, and three ties for a winning percentage of .390 with ties disregarded. The Tide, in fact, has gone undefeated through the last two seasons—18 games without a setback and with only one tie.

Impressive as is this record, Alabama maintains only a slight edge over its two closest rivals, Minnesota's Gophers and the Pitt Panthers. Beaten twice this year, Minnesota nevertheless has lost only three games in five years while winning 33 and tying four for a percentage of .917. Pitt, the nation's No. 1 array for 1937, has won 40 games, lost four and tied four (including three consecutive draws with Fordham) for a .909 average.

Should Alabama bow to California on New Year's day the Tide automatically will drop back into a tie with Pitt for second place in the five-year standings while Minnesota moves into the pace-setting role.

As befits its sensational successes of the past season, the east places four team in the "first ten" for 1933-37. Holy Cross, in fifth position, Princeton in 8th and Fordham in 10th are the others. The south has three—Alabama, Louisiana, which is No. 4 and Duke, No. 7. The middle west pre-empts the remaining places with Minnesota in No. 2, Western Reserve in No. 6, and Michigan State, No. 9.

The Southwest's first representative in the list is Texas Christian at No. 18. Colorado tops the Rocky Mountain section in 19th place while the far west's leader, Santa Clara, is No. 20. Santa Clara, unbeaten and untied this year, would be close to the leaders except for the disastrous campaign of 1935 when the Broncos were beaten six times.

The decline of football fortunes at Notre Dame is strikingly revealed by the Irish's position on the list—No. 33. Illinois, formerly a Big Ten threat, No. 27.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Note to Van Mungo, Pageland, S. C. Looks like you're stuck in Brooklyn another summer. Butch, unless you want to stay down there and plow... How're crops? ... It was worth exactly 1,000 potatoes to Max Baer when Mrs. B. presented him a bouncing boy.... Jack Dempsey had bet the new arrival would be a little gal.... The New York Giants swear if they would match up Cliff Battles and War Admiral, they'd bet on Cliff.... Out at Chicago Burleigh Grimes plum forgot Bill McKeechle had gone to Cincinnati and asked him if he wanted to swap Lopez.

Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, at 68 has become a red hot football fan.... In a pro game at Washington the other week the safety man was playing deep.... "Looky here," Griff said to George Preston Marshall, Redskins owner, "ain't you center fielder pretty far back?"

Some of the meanies are saying it wasn't flu that sent Travis Jackson to bed in Chicago but the news that Babe Herman had been wished on his ball club.... Max Schmeling will be fighting his 13th fight in this country on Dec. 13 when he takes on Harry Thomas next Monday night.

First football post-season casualty was reported today.... After escaping the rigors of the season, Bernie Bloom, New York U. backfield star, slipped and broke an arm while carrying a load of books.... Jimmy Braddock has started training for whatever may bob up and it may be Miami in February.

Florida's novel system of having football players sit in dugouts just like baseballers isn't going over so well with the visitors.... In an exciting moment of the Georgia Tech game, two subs leaped, cracked their heads against the concrete top and all but knocked themselves out.... Every account we've read of the Joe McCarthy-Bill Terry word war in Chicago has been different.... Perhaps the right one is that advanced by one New York scribe who cracked: "Terry must have thought McCarthy was a baseball writer."

Plan Title Match

COLUMBUS, Dec. 7.—The Midwest Wrestling association called on John Pesek, Nebraska, and Everett Marshall of Columbus today to complete arrangements for a heavyweight championship match. The Midwest group recognized Marshall a year ago and later the National Wrestling association named Pesek as title holder.

BUCKEYE LOOP FACES CRISIS, COACH CLAIMS

Gauthier Says Nobody Knows What May Be Done At Meeting

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7.—Two Buckeye conference gridiron coaches labelled as of "no significance" today a statement from Coach George Gauthier, of Ohio Wesleyan, that Miami university had not signed with Marshall college for a 1938 football contest.

Gauthier, who asserted here yesterday "no one knows now just what will happen" at the Buckeye meeting Saturday at Columbus, said the two had not signed after intimating the six-school loop faced a crisis.

The statement held "no significance," said Coach George Rider, of Miami, adding:

"There is no contract yet and it is not time for one. There is a verbal agreement and Marshall knows my word is as good as my bond." Head Coach Cam Henderson of Marshall, said the present lack of a contract with Miami signified nothing since it was a formality between members who meet every season.

"Only recently has the bickering within the Buckeye been called to my attention," Henderson added. "We have been too busy with an undefeated team to have much time for anything else."

"Marshall has no statement to make regarding the trouble, if any, but since the press has been used so freely for the airing of views before the meeting, let's not snub the writers when rumors cease and facts are put on the table."

Gauthier, referring to an eligibility dispute which has involved the conference, said "one of three things can happen" at the meeting. "The Buckeye may break up entirely; several schools may withdraw from the organization; or the conference may continue with its present membership with certain schools refusing to schedule certain other schools."

Buckeye rules at present call for each member to meet every other member.

Ohioan Purchases 2-Year-Old Filly

(By Associated Press)
I. J. Collins of Lancaster, noted thoroughbred breeder and owner of a racing stable, has purchased at private terms from the Odessa farms of Detroit the two-year-old filly, Odessa Helen. The filly has started 15 times as a juvenile, winning five races. Three of her victories were in consecutive stakes, the Fort Wayne and Sallan cup handicaps at Detroit and the Cuvier Press club handicap at River Downs.

Al Miller, veteran trainer of the Collins string who has made the veteran mare, Paradisical, a consistent winner, will prepare Odessa Helen for the Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs and other three-year-old filly stakes.

BOWLING RESULTS

The league-leading Colonial Billiards suffered more than one defeat in a match for the first time of the season last night as they lost two out of three games to the Salem Tigers at the Grate Recreation alleys.

The set-backs did not disturb the Billiards' first-place position, but did cut their lead from six to five games.

Harris Garage pulled from a four-way tie for fourth place into sole possession of the fourth position in the only big change in league standings.

The Ohio Edison and Reich Sports continued their battle for the top berth in the American league at the Masonic temple last night as the Edisonites, who now hold the lead, won two games from Mullins Foremen and Reich's won two from the Masons.

DISPUTE OVER NET RANKINGS

English Association Reveals Standings For 1937 Season

LONDON, Dec. 7.—English net stars H. W. Austin and the newly-married Dorothy Round are ranked leaders of the local lawn tennis world.

Creating a sharp divergence of opinion among tennis players and expert commentators, the English Lawn Tennis association announced its official rankings for 1937 as follows:

Men—1. H. H. Austin; 2. C. E. Hare; 3. C. R. Tuckey; 4. H. G. N. Lee; 5. D. W. Butler; 6. H. P. David; 7. C. M. Jones; 8. P. H. D. Wilde; 9. D. McPhail; 10. R. A. Shayer.

Women—1. Miss Dorothy Round; 2. Miss R. M. Hardwick; 3. Miss M. C. Scriven; 4. Miss K. E. Stammers; 5. Miss Mary Healey; 6. Miss Joan Saunders; 7. Mrs. M. R. King; 8. Miss Freda James; 9. Miss E. M. Dearman; 10. Mrs. E. C. Peters.

Immediate criticism was forthcoming because the association had let out G. P. Hughes and Nigel Sharpe for "want of sufficient data." Experts described this as a joke, inasmuch as both men have played in virtually every tournament and are regarded as approximating Austin in tennis caliber.

The list revealed clearly British tennis poverty. With the possible exception of Austin and Miss Round, none of the players listed was regarded as capable of carrying the British banner to success at the 1938 Wimbledon or Forest Hills tournaments.

In particular the rankings revealed that Britain has no young and coming players of the caliber of the young American tennis generation, and stands scant chance of regaining the Davis Cup and the Wightman Cup from the United States in the next year or so.

The Lindberghs Return to America

With the same unannounced suddenness that marked their departure for England, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh returned to the United States aboard the liner President Harding. News of their arrival in America "leaked out" only after their ship had docked. This picture, made during the voyage, shows the world-famous flier and his wife at the captain's table with the ship's skipper, Capt. James E. Roberts.

Heads John Carroll

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7.—The Rev. Edmund C. Horne, S. J., occupied today the president's chair of John Carroll university. The Rev. George J. Pickel, S. J., acting president for the past few months, continued in charge of the university's chemistry department.

Pays On Liquor

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Ohio has paid $118,278,052 in liquor taxes to the federal government since repeal of prohibition Dec. 5, 1933, to rank sixth behind Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York, Indiana and Kentucky. The National total is $1,916,000,000.

Patrolmen's Song Proves Effective

(By Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 7.—Rock of ages, cleft for me," sang the police quartet, practicing for a church appearance.
"Let me hide myself in thee."
A 18-year-old burglar suspect in the next room stopped glaring at questioning officers. He turned his head to listen.
"Let the water and the blood From thy riven side which flows" Detective Lieutenant C. W. Kemp nudged the youth, whose lip was trembling.
"Be of sin the double cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and power."
The youth was in tears.
"I'll tell you all about it," he sobbed.
Kemp said the boy admitted four grocery burglaries and an automobile theft.
